DADE HERITAGE TRUST

February 6, 2003

Mr. Dennis Doucette
1200 Anastasia Avenue
Coral Gables, FL 33134

Dear Dennis,

It was a pleasure speaking with you last night at the campaign party for Don Slesnick. As you requested, I am following up in writing what we discussed about a luncheon underwritten by the Biltmore as the highlight of Dade Heritage Days 2003.

As you know, every March and April, Dade Heritage Trust, our community's leading historic preservation nonprofit, orchestrates Dade Heritage Days, a two-month-long celebration of the history and historic landmarks of Miami-Dade County. This year's theme is "Golden Wings of History," with an emphasis on Miami's aviation heritage.

Our plans—awaiting your official approval—are to have a fundraising luncheon for 200 people in the Alhambra Ballroom on Tuesday, April 1st. Angela Gittens, director of MIA, has expressed her willingness to be the guest speaker. Mayor Don Slesnick would be the master of ceremonies. You and Gene Prescott, if you like, would be recognized as honorary co-chairmen, along with GMCVB Chairman Tony Goldman.

In return for your donation of lunch for 200 (similar to the Prologue Society's luncheon I attended which featured the Biltmore Hotel book), the Biltmore Hotel would be listed as a major ($5000 or more) sponsor of Dade Heritage Days, and the Biltmore logo would be displayed on our 50,000 brochures, street banners, newspaper ads, and website.

In addition, in our spring issue of Preservation Today magazine, we will feature a story about the Biltmore written by Ellen Uguccioni and Sam LaRoue, publicizing The Biltmore Hotel, An Enduring Legacy. We will also give the Biltmore Hotel a free full-page color ad (worth $795) in Preservation Today.

I eagerly await your official approval. We must get our Dade Heritage Days brochures to the printer by Monday, so I hope you will confirm that you find this plan as exciting and desirable as we do. Many thanks!

Sincerely,

Becky Roper Matkov
Executive Director

from 8:30 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.

Friday, February 28, 2003

at the Miami Woman's Club, 1737 N. Bayshore Drive

This one-day summit seeks to elevate the level of community discussion on quality of life issues, such as endangered urban parks and open spaces, waterfront access and patterns of urban development – such as principles of smart growth and urban infill. Guest speakers include City of Miami Mayor, the Honorable Manny Diaz; Commissioner Johnny Winton; Urban Planner and Architect, Bernard Zyscovich; Transportation Engineer, Joe Corradino; and a number of local historians, environmentalists and conservationists, and business and civic activists.

The conference costs $15.00 and includes lunch.

Dade Heritage Trust Preservation Awards 2003

Candidate Nomination Information

General Information

- An application form must be completed for each nomination to be submitted. Candidates may be self-nominated. You may nominate multiple candidates for awards.
- Once submitted, all application materials become property of Dade Heritage Trust (please make copies for your files).
- Completed applications must be post marked by March 1st 2003.
- Preservation Awards are announced and presented during the Dade Heritage Trust Preservation Awards ceremony to be held at the end of Dade Heritage Days.
- All work to be considered for recognition must have taken place within the borders of Miami-Dade County and must have been completed within the last five years.
- A judging committee will review each submission and determine winners by considering the overall quality of preservation work and its significance for Miami-Dade County. The uniqueness, authenticity and extensiveness of projects are considered. Judges note the impact on city and county policy and on the community as a whole that has resulted from the project, individual's work, or organization's work for preservation. COMPLETE nomination materials are greatly appreciated.
